Worship theme: Even as we experience stresses, struggles, suffering, and separation from our favorite people and activities, this week we connect to a hope that does not disappoint us because, "God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit..." (Rom 5:5).

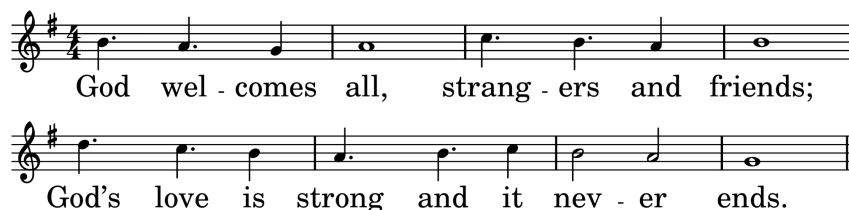

We hope you'll take a moment to invite others to join you online as you get settled and grab your beverage. Get ready to tap into God's abundance, grace, and generosity! Our special music, Scripture readings, prayers, and message from Pastor Kevin will connect us to God's love that is poured out, scooped out, freely available for you to enjoy, and to share others. Enjoy improved audio, multi-camera video, and screen lyrics for many of our hymns.

Romans 5:1-8 (NRSV)

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces

An Abundance of Hope

Rom. 5:1–8; Matt. 9:35–10:8

Rev. Kevin Yoho

hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Silent Reflection:

(05)

Call to Reconciliation: God loves you. God welcomes you. God sees you. Nothing separates you from God's love. In a spirit of gratitude and honesty, let us say together:

Prayer of Forgiveness:

Good morning God, our Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer. Forgive us for hurting or neglecting others, missing opportunities to live like Jesus. When we waver, give us courage. When we doubt, give us strength. When we refuse, realign us. When we forget, remind us. When we ourselves cry out, send your tenderness in another. When we hear the cries of others, turn us toward them. When we want to hide, draw us out. When we go out, let us shine with your glory and light. Help us to love, welcoming all, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Silent Reflection (Consider- However you may feel right now, you are loved in Christ!)

(06)

Hear the Words of Assurance:

In the name of Jesus Christ, the risen Lord, God loves and forgives us to live the resurrection life so that we show love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control in our life every day, which is the fruit of the Spirit.

Thanks be to God, we are forgiven! AMEN.

Music: The Gloria

(07)

Silent Reflection:

(08)

Verse 1

Song of love and my surrender
How I gave my life to Him
And the joy from knowing Jesus
Nothing else could ever bring
I will sing of my redemption
And the love I don't deserve
How I found my precious Saviour
When the voice of God I heard

Verse 2

Song of hope to give my future
Solid ground on which to build
And my soul will live forever
Love divine and hope fulfilled
May His goodness be my shelter
May His wisdom be my guide
And the scars will still remind me
How my friend has saved my life

Verse 3

Song of freedom made eternal
And a peace forever mine
Through the cross and resurrection
Death defeated He's alive
Alleluia what a Saviour
Alleluia King of Kings
He is risen I'm forgiven
Precious love my soul to win

Old Testament Reading: Psalm 100 (NRSV)

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.

Worship the Lord with gladness;

come into his presence with singing.

Know that the Lord is God.

It is he that made us, and we are his;

we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving,

and his courts with praise.

Give thanks to him, bless his name.

For the Lord is good;

his steadfast love endures forever,

and his faithfulness to all generations.

New Testament Reading: Matthew 9:35-10:8 (NRSV)

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.”

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: “Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’ Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.
