

TWO MORE BROTHERS FOLLOW JESUS

(Capernaum, Galilee) — Jesus came back to his home country of Galilee after going to see his cousin John the Baptizer. When Jesus got back to Galilee, he went to the city of Capernaum, beside the Sea of Galilee. Capernaum had a lot of fishermen living there. They would sail their boats out onto the lake every day, catch all the fish they could, and then sail back to Capernaum to sell their fish. Two brothers lived in Capernaum with their father, Zebedee. They were named James and John. These brothers were good fishermen, just like their father. They probably planned to keep fishing for the rest of their lives, the way their father always had. But one day Jesus came along the shore and saw them. He said, "Follow me!" Both brothers did.
