

MESSENGER SAYS JESUS IS ALIVE AGAIN!

(Jerusalem) — Some women who were friends of Jesus got the surprise of their lives on Sunday morning. They went to the cemetery where Jesus was buried. They were sad because Jesus had died on Friday afternoon. They had come to put some perfume on his body. But when they got to the cemetery, Jesus' tomb had been opened. It was empty!

The biggest surprise came next. The women saw a messenger wearing a white robe. He told them not to be afraid, and not to be surprised. He must have known the women would think somebody had stolen Jesus' body. The messenger said, "Jesus is not here. He is risen."

The women could hardly believe it. They saw how Jesus died. Now a messenger from God was telling them that Jesus was alive again!
