WORSHIP PREVIEW

Happy Mother's Day!

This Sunday, we commemorate Mother's Day. Honoring motherhood has a long history from the earliest of times. Our Mother's Day tradition is mainly attributed to Anna Jarvis. She worked tirelessly honoring a mother's sacrifice in caring for children, following her own mother's death on the second Sunday of May in 1905. In 1908, thousands of people attended a Mother's Day event financed by Presbyterian and Philadelphia department store owner John Wanamaker at one of his retail stores in Philadelphia. It didn't take long for Mother's Day celebrations to become a commercial success when florists, greeting card manufacturers, and retail stores joined in its promotion.

God knows our hearts and our heartaches this Mother's Day. As others rightfully celebrate the joy and love of the mothers in their lives, this day, for some of us, is a sad reminder of a mother's absence in our lives. If we buy flowers today, it may only be to place them by a graveside. If we buy a card today, it could only be in hopes of knowing our mothers one day. Some simply miss our mom's hugs prevented by travel and health restrictions, something Facebook or FaceTime connections just can't replace. Others grieve strained relationships. Many will light a candle in honor of a mother who is not locally present or who has passed, long ago or more recently. For some, this Mother's Day will be joyful. Others are tearful. For some wistful, or it will just be a day that feels empty.

But God comforts us like a mother. God's Spirit meets us where we are. Let's honor the mothers that we knew, those we are blessed to know, or the mothers that we hope for. God's love shared in our hearts and with others can remind us of the abundant life, love, care, provision, forgiveness, and hope we have received through Jesus Christ.

"As a mother comforts her child,
so will I comfort you" (Isaiah 66:13a)

WELCOME: REV. KEVIN YOHO (10:30)

And Jesus said, "Come!"
To all mothers and all children: he said, "Come!"
to the motherless and the childless: he said, "Come!"
to all who long to be mothered: he said, "Come!"
Come unto me all who labour and are over-burdened,
and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you and learn from me,
for I am gentle and humble of heart
and you will find rest for your souls."

MOTHER'S DAY TRIBUTE MOVIE (10:32)

CALL TO WORSHIP (RESPONSIVE): (10:33)

Hallelujah! Christ is Risen!

Christ is risen, indeed!

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Christ is rising in our lives. Let us worship God!

GOD WELCOMES ALL (UNISON): (1-10:33)

God welcomes all, strangers and friends;
God's love is strong, and it never ends.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (UNISON):

Loving God, keep our hearts and minds open to the Good News as we learn, grow, and serve. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING: PSALM 98 (NIV)

Sing to the Lord a new song,
for he has done marvelous things;
his right hand and his holy arm
have worked salvation for him.
The Lord has made his salvation known and revealed his righteousness to the nations.

He has remembered his love
and his faithfulness to Israel;
all the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation of our God.
Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth,
burst into jubilant song with music;
make music to the Lord with the harp,
with the harp and the sound of singing,
with trumpets and the blast of the ram's horn—
shout for joy before the Lord, the King.
Let the sea resound, and everything in it,
the world, and all who live in it.
Let the rivers clap their hands,
let the mountains sing together for joy;
let them sing before the Lord,
for he comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world in righteousness
and the peoples with equity.

GOSPEL READING: JOHN 15:9-17 (MSG)

(10:38)

“I’ve loved you the way my Father has loved me. Make yourselves at home in my love. If you keep my commands, you’ll remain intimately at home in my love. That’s what I’ve done—kept my Father’s commands and made myself at home in his love.

“I’ve told you these things for a purpose: that my joy might be your joy, and your joy wholly mature. This is my command: Love one another the way I loved you. This is the very best way to love. Put your life on the line for your friends. You are my friends when you do the things I command you. I’m no longer calling you servants because servants don’t understand what their master is thinking and planning. No, I’ve named you friends because I’ve let you in on everything I’ve heard from the Father.

“You didn’t choose me, remember; I chose you, and put you in the world to bear fruit, fruit that won’t spoil. As fruit bearers, whatever you ask the Father in relation to me, he gives you.

“But remember the root command: Love one another.

MESSAGE: PICK ME, PICK ME!

PRAYER AND SILENT REFLECTION:

MUSIC (VIDEO LYRICS): NOW THANK WE ALL OUR GOD (3:25)

(4) (10:50)

Let's sing, or hum, or clap our hands together, right where we are!

Verse 1

Now thank we all our God
With hearts and hands and voices
Who wondrous things has done
In whom His world rejoices
Who from our mother's arms
Has blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love
And still is ours today

Verse 2

O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us
And keep us in His grace
And guide us when perplexed
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next

Verse 3

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given
The Son and Him who reigns
With them in highest heaven
The one eternal God
Whom earth and heaven adore
For thus it was is now
And shall be evermore
