Pentecost Sunday

A Hybrid Worship Experience In-Person and Online

Today's worship team— Music Director: Jayne McDonough; Worship Leader: Barbara Cain
Pastor: Rev. Dr. Kevin Yoho; Worship Production: Norris Clark.

WELCOME!

Enjoy worship, masks are optional.

WORSHIP YOUR WAY!

In-person or worship online:
www.coldspringworship.com.
With Covid-19 case counts rising, we continue to manage and mitigate the effects of the Covid-19 Pandemic by healthy gatherings. While masks are optional, you are encouraged to wear a mask until you're seated.

WE GATHER AT THE LORD'S TABLE

You are welcomed to Jesus' table this week. Our in-person worshippers will be provided pre-packaged communion cups, which online worshippers may request by contacting the office. Or, choose the bread you prefer. You may use grape juice or wine or water for the cup, remembering that Christ is the Living Water.

MESSAGE PREVIEW

Last week was Ascension Sunday when we recounted Jesus ascending into heaven. Before Jesus was out of sight, he gave the disciples a fantastic job to do. They were to be his witnesses to the entire world, but only after they received power from the Holy Spirit. Jesus said to wait for the promised Holy Spirit. And while Pentecost Sunday celebrates the receiving of the Spirit as the birthday of the Church, featuring the bold, powerful color red, Pentecost originated as a Jewish holiday.

One thousand six hundred years before Jesus, Moses instructed the people to present their first harvest to God to say thanks. In Hebrew, it is called Shavuot (rhymes with "oat"), meaning "weeks," —and so it is known as the Feast of Weeks. The Feast of Weeks occurs fifty days after Passover on the Hebrew calendar. By the time of Jesus, the Feast of Weeks was called Pentecost, derived from the Greek word for "fifty."

In Leviticus 23, we see the connection between Passover and the Feast of Weeks when the Lord spoke to Moses. "Speak to the people of Israel and say to them, when you come into the land that I give you and reap its harvest, you shall bring the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest, and he shall wave the sheaf before the Lord, so that you may be accepted. On the day after the Sabbath, the priest shall wave it.” (23:9-11). The flame never went out.

Jesus was our Passover sacrifice on the cross. Three days later, Jesus rose triumphant over death! But there’s so much more. Fifty days after Easter, Jesus gave the Holy Spirit that power-lifted the followers of Jesus. The Spirit uplifted an already special day and transformed it into Power-Up Sunday. You won’t want to miss Pastor Kevin’s message and learn how to practice Pentecost every day using the 5-fold Pentecost Power-Up and Power-Up Your Life!

MUSIC PREVIEW

Barbara Cain will sing “Come People of the Risen King.” This music calls the church, both young and old, to rejoice in the risen King. Following the message, we will be singing On Pentecost They Gathered. You may recognize this hymn tune from Mendelssohn’s oratorio “Elijah.” During communion, we will enjoy Blessed Jesus, Living Bread. You may listen or join in singing.

We will conclude worship with the hymn Every Time I Feel the Spirit, an African-American spiritual dating to before the US Civil War. Contemporary artists and gospel music groups have frequently recorded the song.

An escaped enslaved person from Maryland named “Aunt” Mary Dines reported the earliest known performance of the song. She served as President Abraham Lincoln’s private cook and prepared meals for displaced enslaved people at Camp Barker. President Lincoln often passed by the Camp into and out of Washington, D.C. During the Civil War (1861–1865), musical performances by the residents included “Every time I feel the Spirit,” a favorite of the Lincolns. According to Dines, the President was moved to tears and returned to hear more singing on another day. PENTECOST is the name of the tune chosen by the United Methodist Hymnal (1989) editors. The syncopated music we sing today from the Presbyterian hymnals (PCUSA) uses an arrangement by Joseph T. Jones (1902–1983) from Great Day: Negro Spirituals (1961), adapted by Melva Wilson Costen for The Presbyterian Hymnal (1990).

CALL TO WORSHIP (RESPONSIVELY): REV. LARRY MOYER (10:32)

Come, Holy Spirit, lift up our spirits:

to scatter Good News all around.

Come, Holy Spirit, help our minds to listen-up:

to sing new songs of joy.

Come, Holy Spirit, shake up the windows of our souls:

to burst through closed doors of our own making.

Come, Holy Spirit, we pray!

Come, Holy Spirit, give us your power everyday!

GOD WELCOMES ALL (UNISON): (1-10:33)

God welcomes all, strangers and friends;
God's love is strong and it never ends.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (UNISON):

Loving God, keep our hearts and minds open to the Good News as we learn, grow, and serve. Amen.

GOSPEL READING: JOHN 3:13-18 (NIV)

No one has ever gone into heaven except the one who came from heaven—the Son of Man. Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him.”

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.

VIDEO: THE SOUNDS OF PENTECOST

When the Feast of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Without warning there was a sound like a strong wind, gale force—no one could tell where it came from. It filled the whole building. Then, like a wildfire, the Holy Spirit spread through their ranks, and they started speaking in a number of different languages as the Spirit prompted them.

There were many Jews staying in Jerusalem just then, devout pilgrims from all over the world. When they heard the sound, they came on the run. Then when they heard, one after another, their own mother tongues being spoken, they were blown away. They couldn't for the life of them figure out what was going on, and kept saying, "Aren't these all Galileans? How come we're hearing them talk in our various mother tongues?"

Parthians, Medes, and Elamites; Visitors from Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene; Immigrants from Rome, both Jews and proselytes; Even Cretans and Arabs!

"They're speaking our languages, describing God's mighty works!" Their heads were spinning; they couldn't make head or tail of any of it. They talked back and forth, confused: "What does this mean?"

PRAYER AND SILENT REFLECTION

MUSIC: ON PENTECOST THEY GATHERED (#128)

- 1 On Pentecost they gathered
Quite early in the day,
A band of Christ's disciples,
To worship, sing, and pray.
A mighty wind came blowing,
Filled all the swirling air,
And tongues of fire aglowing
Inspired each person there.

- 2 The people all around them
Were startled and amazed
To understand their language,
As Christ the Lord they praised.

What universal message,
What great good news was here?
That Christ, once dead, is risen
To vanquish all our fear.

3 God pours the Holy Spirit
On all who would believe,
On women, men, and children
Who would God's grace receive.
That Spirit knows no limit,
Bestowing life and power.
The church, formed and reforming,
Responds in every hour.

4 O Spirit, sent from heaven
On that day long ago,
Rekindle faith among us
In all life's ebb and flow.
O give us ears to listen
And tongues aflame with praise,
So folk of every nation
Glad songs of joy shall raise.

CALL TO RECONCILIATION

(10:54)

God loves you and nothing separates you from God's love. In a spirit of gratitude and honesty, let us pray together:

PRAYER OF FORGIVENESS (UNISON)

Thank you, God, for forgiving our sins and releasing us from anything that holds us back. Stir us by your Spirit to become reconciled through Christ. Amen.

SILENT REFLECTION

HEAR THE WORDS OF ASSURANCE (RESPONSIVE)

In the name of Jesus Christ, God loves and forgives us to live a life of faith and justice. Thanks be to God, we are forgiven! Amen.

THE GLORIA

(3) (10:56)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

MOMENT FOR GIVING AND PENTECOST OFFERING

(10:57)

God calls us to lives of grateful generosity. Thank you for supporting our mission.

PRAYER OF GRATITUDE

THE DOXOLOGY

(5) (10:58)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise God all creatures here below; praise God above the heavenly host, praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

BIRTHDAYS AND ANNIVERSARIES

Happy birthday to Chuck McPherson (6/6), Carley McPherson (6/7), Robin Stiles (6/10), Beau Westkott (6/11), and James Dodd, Sr. (6/11). Anniversary blessings to Barbara & Elmer McCain (6/5).

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE:

(10:58)

Let us pray for God's peace and comfort for Shirley Will (100) and her family, Ken and Rhonda. Shirley is on hospice care. Mourning the loss of life in the Uvalde, Texas school shooting. Families mourning the loss of loved ones who recently passed include Sharon Whilden, Jake Lincoln, Aunt Evelyn, Carrie Matthews, and Betty Miller. Harry Whilden (heart condition). Wally (MS, wellness). Judy Lambert (Genesis, North Cape). Damien Bakley (hospice). Matthew's family following a car accident. Sandy Montaña suffered a heart attack. Wendy Boer (stroke). Lenore (macular degeneration), Verna Shifflett, Crystal Vines, Susan, Vinny, Joanne, Ed, Dorothy, Eileen, Reese, Marie, Robert, Patti, Marie.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and all who work for peace. We pray that all who seek shelter, food, employment, healing, and wholeness in mind, body, and spirit would receive the resources that need. We pray for those suffering from Covid-19 and other illnesses. We ask God to bless those who serve in healthcare, police, fire, government, the armed forces, education, and business.

LORD'S PRAYER

(11:03)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

APOSTLES CREED (UNISON)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

INVITATION TO ALL: COME TO THE LORD'S TABLE! (11:15)

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING (RESPONSIVELY)

The Lord be with you!

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We join our voices with all creation and all ages to proclaim the glory of your name: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

COMMUNION (USE PRE-PACKAGED CUPS)

MUSIC (VIDEO): BLESSED JESUS, LIVING BREAD (11:08)

Blessed Jesus, living Bread,
By your self our souls are fed:
Give us all the eyes to see
All that you were sent to be.

"What is it?" old Israel cried,
Ate it, and was satisfied.
Now the same prolific hand
Feeds them in a barren land.
Not by this world's bread alone
Can our life become full-grown,
But by every word that goes
From the mouth of God one grows.

On that table made of wood
Lies our sacramental food:

"Take and eat and live" you call,
"Here is life for each and all!"
Ah, what welcome words you speak:
Comfort to revive the weak,
God's own wisdom, hope, and cheer
Starving souls are blest to hear.

Word incarnate, Word divine,
Word that comes in bread and wine:
Love that we have come to know:
Lord, to whom else shall we go?

We are in that crowd you fed
With your blest, abundant Bread.
Moved by every human care
Bless the Bread we eat and share.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

FRESH EXPRESSION OF COMMUNITY

(11:24)

Once we were strangers,
Now we are neighbors.

Once we were strangers,
Now we are friends.

MUSIC: EV'RY TIME I FEEL THE SPIRIT

Ev'ry time I feel the Spirit
Moving in my heart I will pray
Yes Ev'ry time I feel the Spirit
Moving in my heart I will pray

Upon the mountain when my Lord spoke
Out of God's mouth came fire and smoke
Looked all around me it looked so fine
Till I asked my Lord if all was mine

Ev'ry time I feel the Spirit
Moving in my heart I will pray
Yes Ev'ry time I feel the Spirit
Moving in my heart I will pray

The Jordan River is chilly and cold
It chills the body but not the soul
There ain't but one train
That's on this track
It runs to heaven and then right back

Ev'ry time I feel the Spirit
Moving in my heart I will pray
Yes Ev'ry time I feel the Spirit
Moving in my heart
I will pray
